Class History

Although a sneak preview of their future "home of all knowledge" was seen in June of their ninth-grade year, it was not until September, 1951, that the class of '54 made its first formal appearance in the halls of Framingham High School. As tradition has it, new Sophomores, the underdogs of F.H.S., were treated in the customary fashion, like morons from another world. But they were finally initiated by attending a very successful Senior-Soph dance given by the seniors for the sole purpose of welcoming the Sophs.

By the time spring had arrived, with overflowing self-confidence the Sophs were engaged in a lively political campaign in order to elect class officers for the coming year. Burton Marmer emerged as President; Vincent Trincia became his "veep"; Joanne Montal took over all paper work and Phyllis Fazzari held onto the moneybags. With almost ten months of hard (?) work behind them, the Sophs decided that it was time for a rest and left F.H.S. for summer vacation.

Three months later, as September rolled around, the Juniors, too, practically "rolled" back to school. After Thanksgiving they were greeted by Mr. Ralph Martin, the new Assistant Principal. But now the Juniors, with a feeling of indifference, wondered about those undignified "things" that called themselves Sophomores.

As the days flew by, the time came for the presentation of the Music Festival, which was, as always, a huge success. Soon thoughts turned toward the Junior Prom that was to be given for the beloved Seniors. Under the capable guidance of their class advisor, Miss Ducas, a most successful Junior Prom was presented with the very appropriate theme "Coronation."

Political fever ran high as the campaign for Senior Class Officers began once again. Neil McLellan became President, while Vincent Trincia remained as Vice President. Again Joanne Montal emerged as Secretary, and Eileen Tosti was elected as Treasurer for the Senior year. Burton Marmer was elected to lead the class on to fame as President of the Student Council. Mary Ryan and Bob Bugley took over the controls of the Philomath, and Judy Connors and Craig Martenson were elected to edit the Student Crier. Albert Guerra became Captain of the Marshals, while Judy Connors was chosen to lead the Cheerleaders, and the Drum Majorettes followed Mary Jo Martin as Head Majorette.

Again in June, when that restless feeling becomes evident, a ten-week vacation began, which breezed by, but everyone was only too glad to return to his alma "mother". Since they were now Seniors, they greeted the Sophomores with the same sneers which they themselves had encountered only two years before. But were the Seniors taken by surprise! Since a new system of rotating periods had been installed, more of the puzzled Seniors got lost than Sophs!

The Cheerleaders this year have brought fame to the school, entering and winning three competitions; and the drum majorettes also gained a trophy for F.H.S.

During Christmas vacation, a record hop was given by the Vocational School; this dance was well attended and enjoyed by all.

For the terrific work done on Christmas Projects, Radio Station WBZ awarded a citation to all the pupils of F.H.S.

The Seniors really displayed their ability to act when they produced the humorous senior play "Ever Since Eve." To Miss Alta Estabrook went much credit and appreciation for doing such a fine job in directing this play. The Seniors then looked forward to the Music Festival, the Prom given in their honor, and Class Night.

We, the Class of 1954, are now waiting for that day in June when we shall proudly receive our diplomas, knowing that we have learned at F.H.S. what it takes to be good citizens, thus making this a better world in which to live.

Class Historian,
MARTHA FARLEY

Class Will

We, the Class of 1954, being sound in both mind and body (Ha Ha) attest to the fact that this document is our official Last Will and Testament.

We, being the most exalted class ever to enter the hallowed halls of dear F.H.S. — (which stands for Framington High School) — are very happy to leave ...

CLASS BEQUESTS

To Mr. Martin we leave a pair of rubber-soled shoes (that do not squeak) so that he will be able to sneak into the boys' basement more easily.

To Mr. Magoon we leave the red flannels, a property from "Ever Since Eve," so that he will never again miss the senior play because of a severe cold.

To Mr. Dubins we leave an illustrious nickname and 69 cents to buy a pair of flashy socks to replace his other ones.

To "Franky Panky Fauntleroy Galvani" we, the class of 1954, return the steam roller which he left behind in 1937. (See 1937 Philomath).

To Miss Oliva we leave a bottle of "Doctor Fiorillo's Snake Oil" which can cure all ailments, even those rare cases which the boys in our school seem to contract very easily.

To Miss Ducas, our worthy class advisor, we leave a bottle of hair restorer to replace the hair pulled out during the reign of "our dear class."

We, the field hockey stars of '54, leave our heartfelt sympathy to Coach Bowker because she has to build a team out of the bunch of "cream puffs" left behind us.

To Mr. Meegan we leave a bottle of his own blend of Meegan's Miracle Muscle Builder out of which two spoonfuls should be taken after each laboratory class. This will restore his vim and vigor after his harrowing experience.

PERSONAL BEQUESTS

I, Mike "Cyrano de Bergerac" Ferragamo, leave my petite schnozzola to Donald "Wanna Bacouba" Capobianco. May he guard it all.

I, Elaine "Loquacious" Gray, the protege of Bill Sherman (of WKOX fame), leave my extraordinary "gift of gab" to anyone who can speak 100 words a minute.

I, Craig "G-Man No. 2" Martenson, leave my summer jobs to anyone who wants to collect food during the day and dispense it at night.

I, Eileen "Get-out-of-my-way" Tosti, leave my bulldozing tactics around school to Lee "Bunk" Carlson to use on the gridiron.

I, Jimmy "Pietro" Halliday, leave my blushes to anyone in the Junior Class who can match my complexion.

I, Agna "La Stupide" Boass, leave my remarkable French vocabulary to Walter "Le Brillant" Winchenback.

I, David "Two-ton Tony" Cobb, leave my Charles Atlas figure to Joe "Stretch" Pellegri.

To the future captain of next year I, Judy "Simon Le-gree" Connors, leave my cat-of-nine-tails which was used to prod this year's Cheerleaders on to great heights.

We, the undersigned, hereby sign this will in consideration of the writers, Phyllis Foglioni and Ernest Belforti, and will be responsible for any court action brought against them.

MISS GARRAHAN NOW MRS. CLASBY

Miss Mary Garrahan, Framingham High's Biology teacher, became the wife of Edward Clasby, former football star, on August 1 at 10 a.m. in St. Stephen's Church. It was a beautiful sunny day and Miss Garrahan made a lovely bride.

One of Miss Garrahan's bridesmaids was Miss Geoghegan, last year's Home Economics teacher.

After the wedding a reception followed at Christy's. The couple went on a honeymoon trip to the Cape, and are now residing at Clark Street.

On October 17, the Student Association officially welcomed the new sophomores. At last sophomores say that they are Framingham High. What will be like?—What will you?—What will you be scared?—The seniors went to the homecoming dance two years ago too, and live today. They will too! Sophomores go to the homecoming dance ever heard of a "nobody." The normal; girls may be, sweaters and actually everyone will as boys—everybody—Soph!!! officers make up the committee. They are: Eileen; Vice-President; Treasurer, Eileen; and the committees are occupational conferences. These conferences are designed to provide the students with up-to-date information concerning vocational opportunities, qualifications required, training needed, and possibilities of advancement in many fields of work.

At each conference there will be three speakers, each occupying a different room, and each speaking on the vocation in which he is a specialist.

Some of the topics planned for discussion are:

- What it is like to be a student nurse.
- Careers in physical education.
- What it is like to be a social worker.
- Careers in advertising and selling.
- Careers in the teaching profession.
- Jobs with the airlines.
- Careers in occupational therapy and medical technology.

How to apply for jobs in government and industry.

Mr. Roland Darling, Assistant Director of Admissions at Northeastern University, has assisted in arranging these conferences.

Other high schools in this area participating in the program include Weston, Lexington, Natick, Wayland, Waltham, Concord, Stoneham, Attleboro, Stoughton, and many others.

Coach Morris pointed out that his well-seasoned team wouldn't "lie down and play dead," and that to achieve victory the backing of the entire school is needed, not just the players who

Serving the financial needs of many people keeps us pretty busy here at the Trust Company.

But that's the way we like it, and we're never too busy to take time out to welcome new folks to our ever widening circle of friends.

Never too busy either, to congratulate a new graduating class, and those who gave them their training.

To each and every one of these our very best wishes and a cordial invitation to bring their banking problems to
